

PSC TODAY

Military Ombud Annual Symposium

The Chairperson of the Public Service Commission, Prof Somadoda Fikeni, at the Military Ombud Annual Symposium talking about "The role of South African Constitutional entities in exercising oversight of the military".

The Annual Symposium was held on 11 November 2022 under the theme "The role of the Ombud in providing oversight within the Civil-Military Architecture: Threats, Resilience, Responsiveness and Future Implications".

Men's Wellness Day

In an effort to contribute towards improved Men's health and wellness, the Public Service Commission held a Men's Wellness Day today (11 November 2022) at Kgosi Mampuru Correctional Centre in Pretoria. The event aimed to create a platform for male employees to discuss issues on men's health, create awareness on preventable diseases, and empower men to open up about issues that can affect their mental health.

The event covered the following topics amongst others:

- General Men's Health Talk
- Medical Male Circumcision
- Marriage Contracts and Estate Planning

The Director-General, Adv Dinkie Dube graced the event.

